Director of Athletic Development

Brisbane Grammar School seeks a Director of Athletic Development to be responsible for physically preparing Brisbane Grammar School students to compete in GPS competitions in flagship teams and championship sports by delivering programs which bring about a graduated, functional pathway of physical development and fundamental movement skill progression.

This full time position commences in mid-November 2016. The salary for this position is dependent upon experience and qualifications.

Responsibilities | Strength and Conditioning Services & Management Duties

- Lead strength and conditioning coach for 3 GPS sports each year.
- Manage a team of strength and conditioning coaches who respectively deliver strength and conditioning services in (other) GPS sports.
- Lead strength and conditioning coach / sport science support for targeted / emerging athletes. Responsible for facilitating and supporting individual athletes by, for example, management of (work) loads, and coordinating programs and deliverables with external stakeholders (e.g. ARU, external coaches, QLD cricket, AFL QLD). In addition, oversee rehabilitation plan with injured athletes; manage delivery of information and treatment plan across relevant stakeholders.
- Manage the BGS Weights Room: planning, development and implementation of strength and conditioning programs; staff management; athlete community and education; administration and communication; resource development.
- Manage a Practicum Placement Program with UQ Human Movement department.

Responsibilities | Sport Science Support

- Athlete Management System (Smartabase): Build and administrate system.
- Provide targeted sport science support with respect to strategies such as assisting Sport Directors and Head Coaches track training loads, athlete monitoring, education programs and (fitness) testing.
- Implement musculoskeletal screenings, fitness and performance testing, maintaining standards of quality assurance.
- Research project collaboration.
- Preparation of all literature pertaining to the ADP and management of athlete education program (e.g. performance nutrition seminars, MyGrammar, Weekly Newsletter).
Responsibilities | Sport Specific

- Ensure high quality preparation practices and a “professional approach” to competing is implemented across sporting programs and through the age-group pathway: e.g. match-day preparation and recovery strategies.
- Manage transition of students through sporting seasons.
- Liaise with directors of sport, coaches and Student Wellbeing Team on needs of individual students, as well as overall direction of the ADP and various initiatives as an evolving curriculum.

Responsibilities | Long Term Athlete Development

- Plan and manage the “PAT” program and Hercules for Middle School students. PAT is the foundation of the ADP, integrating components of physical literacy and regular activity as the basis for sport and healthy living.
